REST THE STOMACH.

Nothing will cure indigestion that doesn't digest the food, fit it, and give the stomach a perfect rest.

You can't reasonably expect that any weak stomach will regain its strength and get well when it is compelled to do the full work that a sound stomach should do.

You wouldn't expect a sick horse to get well when it is compelled to do a full day's work every day of the week.

Your stomach must have rest.
But it isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It will digest all of the food you can eat regardless of the condition of your stomach.

KODOL

I had Dyspepsia in its worst form; was reduced in weight to 118 pounds. After using two and one-half bottles of Kodol, I was completely cured and restored to my usual weight of 145 pounds.

DR. ANDREWS GOES TO MANNINGTON

Dr. W. R. Andrews will locate his office in Mannington next week and take the practice left by Dr. R. R. Roth, homeopath, who has gone to California. This arrangement was agreed upon this week, when Dr. Andrews made a visit to Mannington to look over the field. Dr. Andrews' wife and daughter will remain here for the present, as the daughter is attending Broadus, and Dr. Andrews will be here quite frequently, having no intention of giving up much of the practice he has here.

Dr. Andrews has been here two and a half years and during that time has enjoyed a gratifying patronage, and has been quite successful. Though being quite busy with his practice Dr. Andrews has found time to be a very useful citizen in other ways and has been quite active in church, Sunday school and Chautauqua work, to say nothing of athletic lines in which he has been a leading spirit. He is a gentleman of splendid intellect and culture and possesses a personality that is magnetic. His wife and daughter are lovely and all have made a host of friends here.

STATE DAIRY ASSOCIATION

The State Dairy Association will hold its annual meeting here Dec. 22. The program and premium list have been issued.

There will be a number of papers read and addresses made by persons prominent in the dairy business at both the forenoon and afternoon sessions, and the election of officers will also be held.

The premiums for butter exhibits are as follows:

Class 1—Best pound print, first, $15; second, $6; third, $4.
Class 2—Best five pound tub or larger: First, $10; second, Ideal, Cooler and Aerator.

Only one pound in either class will be awarded to an individual exhibitor. All butter exhibited under Class 1 becomes the property of the association.

Baby Sick

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Morris is quite sick with pneumonia, but it is hoped that his recovery may be speedy.

SWEET MELODY FLOUR.

THE VERDICT WAS "NOT GUILTY"

Last night, and for the remainder of the week, Sam Allen presents at the Grand the Rosabelle Leslie company in a repertoire of popular plays. The opening bill was a four-act melodrama entitled "Not Guilty." A large audience was present and heartily applauded the play and performers.

Miss Leslie displayed an attractive and charming personality and played the part of Constance Sheldon, the heroine, who sticks to her lover through thick and thin (small houses and large, to speak theatrically) in a manner that won the hearts and applause of the audience. The supporting cast was an unusually large and were all exceptionally clever. The play was costumed handsomely and the scenic effects were vastly superior to repertoire dramatic companies. It would be safe to add that Riverside Park is so much of a sleeping ground, and is quite a distance from Madison Square, some of the characters rather confused their whereabouts in this act.

The play presented all the old tried and true features of a well constructed melodrama. We saw love and hate, jealousy, despair, revenge, treachery, humor, comedy and pathos. The villain was there and, alas—the deadly cigarette, and the gallery hissed him to their hearts content.

Space forbids individual mention of all the performers in the cast, but they are all painstaking and hard-working and the whole ensemble constitutes a well balanced company, and one that will give satisfaction to a critical audience.

In addition to the dramatic part of the entertainment a second company of vaudeville artists relieve the time between acts. As presented last night the vaudeville bill numbered four acts and each one was a star of its kind. Shields and Gail, flying ring experts, were clever, beyond doubt, the stupendous strength of one and the supple dexterity of the other make a pleasing contrast to the spectator.

Robish and Childress did a melange of travesty, something on the style of De Wolf Hopper and Lillian Russell introduced a few years ago. Their act was well received.

Arthur Blackaller did a monologue. Seems like we have seen him before. The program did not state that this was his first appearance and neither did he act like it. The audience took to Mr. Blackaller very perceptibly.

Roy Phillips, the handsome young hero of the drama, whom every one "turn down" but Constance, sang very charmingly two ballads. The vaudeville department is quite up to the standard and worth seeing.

Some trouble was occasioned by the lights going out but the audience took it good naturedly. This defect has been remedied and there will be nothing occur to mar the production tonight of the second performance of the company. Tonight will be presented "A Mill Girl's Honor," another very strong melodrama, with Miss Leslie in the leading role.

LADIES AID SOCIETY

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church held a sale of fancy articles in the drummer sample room of the Traders hotel on Wednesday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served. The sale will be continued this evening.

T. M. Sullivan was here from Mt. Clare Wednesday and spent the day here.

Hon. John Bassel has returned from Charleston, where he attended to legal business before the state supreme court.
